

The Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation - Grants (March round)

Summary

	Number	Amount
Daiwa Foundation Awards	9	£77,250
Daiwa Foundation Small Grants	18	£55,000
Total	27	£132,250

Applicant	Project	Award
-----------	---------	-------

Daiwa Foundation Awards

Clifton Scientific Trust	Support for 15 senior high school students and 5 teachers from 5 schools devastated by the Tohoku-Kanto Earthquake and Tsunami to take part in the 2011 UK-Japan Young Scientist Workshop organised by Clifton Scientific Trust in Cambridge, 24-30 July 2011.	£10,000
Corn Exchange Gallery	Support for a visit to the UK by stone sculptor Hayashi Takeshi, whose solo exhibition of large-scale pieces will be shown by the Corn Exchange Gallery, Edinburgh, 28 July-29 September 2011.	£7,000
De Montfort University	Support for flights to the UK by two staff and 15 students from Tohoku University affected by the 11 March earthquake and tsunami to undertake a range of academic study opportunities and business and cultural study tours, 15-24 September 2011.	£12,750
International Curators Forum	Support for a visit to Japan by 12 UK-based curators & production team participating in the ICF-led symposium 'Extra Sensory Performance' during the Yokohama Triennale 2011, resulting in further UK-Japan curatorial exchange & publications, Sept 2011.	£9,000
Kanazawa Art Promotion and Development Foundation	Support for Peter McDonald's visit to the 21st Century Museum of Contemporary Art, Kanazawa to take part in the Kanazawa Youth Dream Challenge Art Program, September 2011.	£7,000
Leeds Metropolitan University, School of Architecture	Support for UK-Japan visits, each comprising five MA students & an academic participating in workshops focusing on cultural & technical issues regarding sustainable design & ecological urbanism, leading to new links & publications, Nov 2011 & Feb 2012.	£8,000
Ruthin Craft Centre, The Centre for the Applied Arts	Support for 'Japanese Style: Sustaining Design': exhibitions, residencies & events, showcasing the strength of the human spirit in playing a key role in the thinking about sustainable development, 30 March-10 June 2012.	£7,500
Sadler's Wells	Support for visits to Sadler's Wells by a Japanese animator & a producer involved in a contemporary theatre piece produced with Bunkamura Theatre, Tokyo on the life & oeuvre of Osamu Tezuka & associated school and family workshop costs, September 2011.	£7,000
University of Plymouth, Faculty of Education	Support for three reciprocal UK-Japan visits by academics to facilitate collaboration at university and school level in order to enhance maths teaching/training by using the Japanese open problem method in the UK and ICT in Japan, October 2011 onwards.	£9,000

Daiwa Foundation Small Grants

Aberystwyth University	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by four sports science academics initiating a cross-cultural project on coaches' leadership styles and athletes' impression management patterns resulting in workshops and publications, July & autumn 2011.	£3,000
Barbican Centre (Trust)	Support for travel to the UK by a film director and actor participating in 'Premiere Japan 2011 - New Japanese Cinema' at the Barbican as well as a contribution to film transportation costs, 25-27 November 2011.	£3,000
Beckfoot School (Bingley, West Yorkshire)	Support for a two-week curriculum-based school exchange visit by ten students and two teachers from Beckfoot School, Bingley to Hiroshima Kokusai High School to further their link and conclude their Peace Project, October-November 2011.	£3,000

Applicant	Project	Award
Edge Hill University	Support for reciprocal flights by four academics initiating UK-Japan research into Geographical Information Systems at school & university level, enabling review of curricula, facilities and student base as well as future cooperation, August 2011 onwards.	£3,000
English Speaking Union of Japan, The	Support for a member of the English Speaking Union UK to visit Akita International University and costs associated with holding a parliamentary debate seminar with four other UK debaters, raising awareness of effective debate, October 2011.	£3,000
Imperial College London, Department of Mathematics	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by four academics developing the Tangled Market model in close collaboration with an analysis of the Japanese Business Model to elucidate the dynamics of financial markets, November 2011 onwards.	£3,000
Koshirakura (Niigata) Landscape Workshop	Support for a two-week visit to Niigata by 20-25 students exploring new forms of social and environmental engineering and architecture through workshops involving architects, artists, volunteers and the local community, August-September 2011.	£4,000
Kyushu University, Graduate School of Law	Support for two UK visits by an academic studying UK and Japanese company legislation and court cases regarding the permissible line of managerial discretion in assessing managerial civil and criminal liability, summer 2011 and spring 2012.	£3,000
Moorfields Eye Hospital	Support for three reciprocal UK-Japan visits by ophthalmologists to carry out collaborative research into the clarification of genotype - phenotype correlations of retinal dystrophies leading to publications and conference papers, July 2011 onwards.	£3,000
Robert Gordon University	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by four academics embarking on a collaboration to develop a new and rapid method to analyse DNA damage in cells with applications and usage in the food and health sectors, September 2011 onwards.	£3,000
South Eastern Regional College (SERC)	Support for travel and subsistence for a two-week educational visit by twelve students and two members of staff from SERC to Toyama National College of Technology to uphold links created in 2008, April 2011.	£0
Stratford Circus Performing Arts Centre	Support for four Japanese musicians performing at Stratford Circus, London in collaboration with London-based musicians at a Tohoku Earthquake fundraising event expected to draw over 5,000 visitors and resulting in further projects, 24-26 July 2011.	£3,000
Temple University, Japan Campus	Support for a visit to the UK by a former Daiwa Scholar, now based at Temple University Japan, to conduct research & interviews on the role and agency of prime ministers in the UK & Japan since 1980, leading to a book, October-November 2011.	£3,000
Tokyo Play	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by three members of Tokyo Play and one member of London Play to enable them to learn from each other and build a partnership promoting better playing environments for children, August 2011 onwards.	£4,000
University of Aberdeen, Department of Mathematical Sciences	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by three academics initiating research through applying the methods of the mathematical field of topology to study gauge groups, leading to new research, links and conference papers, September 2011 & March 2012.	£3,000
University of Central Lancashire (Keiko Sagara)	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by three researchers undertaking a comparative study into Japanese and British sign language with a particular focus on numerical systems, leading to further research and discussion, autumn 2011 and March 2012.	£3,000
University of Manchester, School of Physics and Astronomy	Support for seven reciprocal UK-Japan flights by academics developing a terahertz-frequency electron paramagnetic resonance spectrometer, leading to workshops, publications & applications for a joint UK-Japan collaborative research grant, from June 2011.	£5,000
University of the West of Scotland	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by two academics and two PhD students cooperating on fission studies through discussions, experiments and collaboration on academic papers, leading to a workshop & further collaboration, summer 2011 & winter 2012.	£3,000