

POSTCARDS FROM JAPAN: A Message From Tohoku Artists

An exhibition of A5 original art works by 22 artists from north east Japan.
Beautiful and poignant works specially made for this exhibition that give insight into the incredible grace and resilience of the Japanese spirit.

Produced by Kate Thomson & Hironori Katagiri of Ukishima Sculpture Studio

Embassy of Japan, 101/104 Piccadilly, London W1J 7JT

12 December 2011 - 31 January 2012

Admission free; Monday to Friday; 09:30 to 17:30

[t] 020 7465 6500 [e] info@ld.mofa.go.jp [w] www.emb-japan.go.jp

Please see <http://www.uk.emb-japan.go.jp/en/webmagazine/dec11/exhibition.html>
for more information

The exhibition catalogue "Postcards from Japan: A Message From Tohoku Artists" is available for £5 (+ £2.30 postage & packing) from <http://www.postcardproject.org>

100% of sales will go towards the printing costs for the catalogue of "Postcards To Japan" which will be given free to people on the coast of Tohoku to accompany the touring exhibition.

The sister project "Postcards To Japan" has received over 370 cards so far from artists all over the world which are now on show at the

Iwate Museum of Art, Morioka City, Japan

until 26th February 2012, admission free.

They will then tour towns and cities along the devastated coast of Tohoku (north east Japan).

More cards are still very welcome and will be added to the exhibition as they arrive.

Please see <http://www.postcardproject.org> for more information.