

The Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation - Grants (September round)

Summary

	Number	Amount
Daiwa Foundation Awards	7	£68,000
Daiwa Foundation Small Grants	16	£55,990
Total	23	£123,990

Ref	Applicant	Project	Award
Daiwa Foundation Awards
8732/9408	Brunel Institute for Ageing Studies (BIAS), Brunel University	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan travel by three academics engaged in ageing studies and demographic challenges for the UK and Japan resulting in seminar programmes, photographic exhibitions, publications and further collaboration, February-November 2012.	£9,000
5720/9459	Sainsbury Institute for the Study of Japanese Arts and Cultures (SISJAC)	Support for a three-week visit to Japan by four students and two academics from the University of East Anglia to experience and participate in cultural heritage rescue in the aftermath of the March 2011 disaster, summer 2012.	£12,500
8775/9452	Seian University of Art and Design, Department of Fine Arts	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan travel by six artists and theoreticians from Seian University of Art and Design and Goldsmiths, University of London leading to exhibitions, installations and symposia, spring and summer 2012 and spring 2013.	£13,000
8752/9429	Tokyo College of Music	Support for twelve reciprocal UK-Japan flights to enable academics and students to learn about 'creative learning' through multiple arts forms, workshops and symposia, June to November 2012.	£10,000
8738/9414	University of Kent, School of Economics	Support towards the costs of four reciprocal UK-Japan visits and fieldwork undertaken by academics researching the link between economic growth and nuclear issues/sustainability resulting in further collaboration and research papers, June 2012.	£7,500
6931/9502	University of Ulster, School of Computing and Intelligent Systems	Support for reciprocal visits by academics from the University of Ulster and Prefectural University of Hiroshima to collaborate on research to develop a new prediction method that can be applied to robot localisation and map building, Jan 2012-Dec 2013.	£9,000
8697/9372	Wade Deacon High School	Support for a seven-day school exchange visit by Wade Deacon High School to enhance links with its partner school, Gifu Commercial & Business High School, and to assess the way Business Education is taught and planned at the two schools, Spring 2012.	£7,000
Daiwa Foundation Small Grants
8777/9454	AATEA (Architectural Association, Tohoku Earthquake Action group)	Support for visits to the UK by 3 Japanese architects participating in exhibitions, symposia & workshops as part of the London Festival of Architecture, & with the aim of creating interactive communication with the Tohoku region, November 2011-June 2012.	£3,000
8690/9365	Bridgewater Hall, The	Support for visits to the UK by two speakers at a festival, curated by pianist Noriko Ogawa, celebrating Debussy's 150th anniversary and his connections with Japan, and costs associated with accompanying workshops and lectures, January to June 2012.	£3,000
6924/9391	Fitzwilliam Museum, The	Support for an exhibition at the Fitzwilliam Museum by Japanese sculptor, Kan Yasuda, displaying his work alongside works of two British sculptors, and related educational activities. April 2012 to February 2013.	£3,000

Ref	Applicant	Project	Award
8813/9495	Kansai University	Support for a study tour by an academic & 3 MA students on the disaster management & sustainable development course at Northumbria University to visit areas in Tohoku affected by the earthquake & tsunami, leading to a report, 15-21 Jan 2012.	£3,000
8792/9469	Loughborough University, Radar	Support for travel to the UK by six Japanese artists to create work, as well as a one-day matsuri event to coincide with Japanese Olympic team's stay at the University, May to July 2012.	£3,750
8671/9490	National Institute of Fitness and Sports in Kanoya (NIFS)	Support for travel to Japan by 3 UK experts in child protection in sport participating in a symposium at NIFS, March 2012 & by 2 experts from Japan attending The International Convention on Science, Education and Medicine in Sport at Glasgow, July 2012.	£5,000
4856/9477	Natural History Museum, The	Support for reciprocal visits by one UK and two Japanese researchers establishing a Lake Biwa periphyton species list & public engagement events to enhance their collaboration on biodiversity, management and conservation of Lake Biwa, February-Nov 2012.	£3,240
3801/9481	Shakespeare's Globe	Susbsistence support for Chiten, a 15-member theatre company from Kyoto, to stage Coriolanus in Japanese as part of the six-week 'Globe to Globe Shakespeare Festival', during which all 37 Shakespeare plays will be staged in foreign languages, May 2012.	£5,000
8228/9419	South Eastern Regional College (SERC)	Support for travel and subsistence for a two-week educational visit by twelve students and two members of staff from SERC to Toyama National College of Technology to uphold links created in 2008, 22 March to 6 April 2012.	£4,000
8791/9468	Southbank Centre	Support for travel to the UK by four Japanese artists and a poet taking part in Festival of the World, a series of international cultural events including Poetry Parnassus and Wide Open School, Southbank Centre, summer 2012.	£3,000
8808/9489	Tokyo University of the Arts, Faculty of Music	Support for travel to the UK by 6 Noh performers, instrumentalists & support staff from Tokyo University of the Arts, to present a comparative performance of Sumidagawa, a Noh play, & Britten's opera Curlew River, furthering cultural exchange, 8 Sept 2012.	£3,000
1872/9480	Ukishima Sculpture Studio	Support for costs related to the UK tour of 'Postcards from Japan' an exhibition and education programme taking place at the Japanese Embassy, London (December to January 2012) and the Ikon Gallery, Birmingham (February to March 2012).	£3,000
8796/9473	University College London, Mullard Space Science Laboratory	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by 3 academics collaborating on an astronomy project to determine solar wind conditions using images of comets obtained by the Japanese amateur astronomy community leading to academic papers & further research, 2012.	£3,000
8720/9396	University of Brighton, Centre for Health Research	Support for reciprocal visits by 3 academics & an NGO practitioner in the field of HIV prevention/risk-reduction leading to a feasibility study, academic presentations, journal articles, & knowledge exchange leading to further cooperation, January 2012~.	£4,000
8751/9428	University of Oxford, Department of Zoology	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by two academics developing a predictive model that can quantify the impact of climate change-induced increases in typhoon intensity on agricultural systems in a spatially explicit manner, January-December 2012.	£3,000
8716/9392	University of Sheffield, Department of Landscape	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits by academics exploring the state of children's outdoor environments in the post-disaster reconstruction process, resulting in conference papers and a report for the Japanese government, April and July 2012.	£4,000