

The Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation - Grants (September 2013 round)

	Number	Amount
Daiwa Foundation Awards	5	£45,000
Daiwa Foundation Small Grants	16	£55,000
Total	21	£100,000

Ref	Applicant	Project	Award
-----	-----------	---------	-------

Daiwa Foundation Awards

9819/10541	The Arts Catalyst	Travel to Sapporo by the director and curator of The Arts Catalyst and five artists to collaborate with S-Air on a programme of inter-cultural contemporary art events and exhibitions exploring science and society to be presented at the Sapporo Art Festival, 2014.	£8,000
------------	-------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------

9855/10577	City University London, School of Informatics, Mixed Reality Lab	Support for a UK-Japan visit by one researcher to finalise workshop contents, three visits to London by Japanese researchers conducting human-robot relation workshops with students, and a contribution to a public exhibition/final symposium, April to July 2014.	£8,000
------------	------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------

9821/10543	Henry Moore Institute	Support for transportation of artwork which will feature in an exhibition of modern Japanese sculpture at the Henry Moore Institute and Musashino Art University, 28 January to 19 April 2015 and May to June 2015.	£10,000
------------	-----------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------

9761/10483	Keys of Change	Support for a week-long visit to UK for 15 of the 33 young Japanese orchestral players travelling from Fukushima to study and perform with British musicians in London, April 2014.	£11,000
------------	----------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------

3688/10462	University College London, Institute of Archaeology	Support for UK-Japan flights for academics to further their research and discussions into how the world's first megacities accessed water systems and resources, aided by the scientific analysis of clay artefacts found in UK museums, February 2014 - February 2016.	£8,000
------------	-----------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------

Daiwa Foundation Small Grants

9770/10492	Cardiff University, School of Psychology	UK-Japan visits by academics from four institutions examining Japan's low fertility rate by implementing and analysing the results of a Japanese version of the Cardiff Fertility Knowledge Scale which will be adapted using a rigorous procedure, December 2013 onwards.	£3,000
------------	------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------

9764/10486	Dene Magna School	Support for a school exchange visit by three teachers and nine pupils from Dene Magna, an 11-16 academy in Mitcheldean, Gloucestershire, to enhance links established in 2002 with two partner schools in Okinawa and to consolidate Japanese as part of its curriculum, February 2014.	£4,000
------------	-------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------

9773/10495	Kagami Theatre	Contribution to venue hire for a London theatre premiere of Kobo Abe's 'Woman of the Dunes' written and directed by Micha Colombo, actor and graduate of Japanese Studies, with the possibility of touring to other venues within the UK, 14 to 21 January 2014.	£3,000
------------	----------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------

5099/10474	Kyoto University, Graduate School of Medicine	Support for a year's stay in the UK as academic visitor to undertake collaborative research at Imperial College into developing new methodologies of using routinely collected data to investigate and monitor variations in healthcare outcomes, April 2014 onwards.	£5,000
------------	-----------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------

9731/10453	LIFT	Contribution to costs of staging Toshiki Okado's 'Super Premium Soft Double Vanilla Rich' - an interdisciplinary performance that explores monotony and bleakness in the retail world - and post-show talks to be presented by LIFT at the 2014 festival in London, 18 to 21 June 2014.	£3,000
9784/10506	Liverpool John Moores University, Exhibition Research Centre (ERC)	Support for transportation of artwork by Hisachika Takahashi to feature in an exhibition at the ERC complemented by a workshop and the curator's participation in the 'Thinking City' public events series co-organised by Liverpool Biennial, 5 December to 23 January 2014.	£3,000
7138/10568	National Media Museum, Bradford	Contribution to the costs of the first international retrospective of director, screenwriter and producer Yoshitaro Nomura (1919 - 2005) including a visit to Bradford by his collaborator Masahiro Kobayashi, eight film screenings and a lecture, 1 to 6 April 2014.	£3,000
9831/10553	Nikitenko, Dr Leonid	Reciprocal UK-Japan visits by academics testing new ideas to further the understanding of the biology of cancer progression and lymphedema, leading to publications and further links between Oxford, Tokyo and Kumamoto Universities, winter/spring 2014.	£3,000
9789/10511	NPO MISO	Support for accommodation costs for 70 children from Miyagi, an area still struggling from the aftermath of the Earthquake, at a British Easter Camp to help with emotional recovery and interaction with UK culture, British Hills, Fukushima, April 2014.	£5,000
9869/10592	RIKEN, Center for Life Science Technologies	Support for a visit to the UK by the project leader, and three visits to Japan by UK researchers participating in a scientific and educational symposium in Kyoto or Yokohama, to introduce advances in neuroscience developed in the UK, September 2014.	£5,000
4357/10520	Rugby Art Gallery and Museum	Support for a research visit to Japan in April 2013 to select furoshiki and related materials for the exhibition 'It's a Wrap' (September 2014 to January 2015), and Japan-UK travel by two artists taking part in associated workshops in Rugby, September 2014.	£3,000
9829/10551	Southern, Dr Paul (UCL & The Royal Institution of Great Britain)	UK-Japan visits by two researchers each from UCL and Toyohashi University of Technology to collaborate on a new technique to measure objects on the nanoscale using transmission electron microscopy, which will result in various applications, early to mid 2014.	£3,000
4388/10564	Tate Liverpool	Support for educational activities accompanying the exhibition, 'Richard Hawkins: The Hijikata Twist, which examines synergies between Japanese and western visual arts and the influence of Hijikata and the avant-garde movement of butoh, 28 February to 11 May 2014.	£3,000
9787/10509	University of Manchester, Dalton Nuclear Institute	Contribution to four research visits between Manchester and the Harima Science Park in order to share know-how in the synthesis of soft donor ligand and their actinide-complexes, leading to a mini-symposium and joint publications, April to May 2014.	£3,000
851/10489	University of Manchester, Manchester Institute of Education	Support for a UK visit by Prof Miyazaki and reciprocal visits to Japan by two Manchester academics to share inter-cultural knowledge relating to the policy and practice of social and emotional learning (SEL) in schools in England and Japan, March to June 2014.	£3,000
6174/10569	University of Sussex, Genome Damage and Stability Centre	Support for three UK-Japan visits to facilitate collaborative research into DNA replication in yeast and human cancer cells in order to elucidate underlying mechanisms which help to regulate DNA replication with relation to cancer development, January 2014.	£3,000