

The Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation - Grants (September 2015 round)

	Number	Amount
Daiwa Foundation Awards	6	£55,250
Daiwa Foundation Small Grants	23	£71,200
Total	30	£126,450

Ref	Applicant	Project	Award
Daiwa Foundation Awards
11021/11761	City & Guilds of London Art School, Conservation Department and Historic Carving Department Project Partner: Tokyo University of the Arts, Sculpture Conservation and Restoration Lab	Support for travel by Tokyo University of the Arts' master carvers and sculpture conservators to City & Guilds of London Art School's Historic Carving and Conservation departments to deliver public lectures, demonstrations and an exhibition, May 2017.	£10,000
11030/11770	Kyoto University, Department of Human Health Sciences Project Partner: King's College London, Florence Nightingale Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery	Support for six reciprocal UK-Japan flights to facilitate collaborative research between Kyoto University and King's College London on how to improve maternal and child health and nutrition by promoting healthy breastfeeding, April 2016 to March 2018.	£9,000
11017/11757	Museum of London Archaeology Project Partners: Osaka City Cultural Properties Association; Kanazawa University	Six reciprocal UK-Japan visits to facilitate collaborative research by four institutions sharing best practice in art and archaeology, resulting in seminars as part of the World Archaeology Conference in Kyoto, and at least two articles, March to September 2016.	£10,000
10948/11688	Royal Pharmaceutical Society Project Partners: Japan Pharmaceutical Association; Josai International University, Chiba	Support for travel to Japan by five colleagues from the Royal Pharmaceutical Society and University College London to develop a long-term collaborative relationship and conduct kick-off projects in national pharmacy workforce development to collaboratively improve standards of pharmaceutical care for patients, July 2016.	£9,500
11000/11740	University of Liverpool, Department of Earth, Ocean and Ecology Project Partner: National Research Institute for Earth Science and Disaster Prevention (NIED) in Tsukuba, Ibaraki	Support for travel by four researchers to assess on-going hazards of persistently active volcanoes and understand structural instabilities, by combining remote monitoring, in-situ measurements and mechanical testing of lava dome samples at Mt Unzen, Nagasaki, April 2016.	£7,750
11028/11768	University of West London, School of Law Project Partner: Nagoya University, Graduate School of Law	Contribution to bringing together UK and Japan arbitration experts at seminars in both countries to make recommendations on increasing Japan's appeal as a destination for arbitration based on the success of arbitration institutions in the UK, May to September 2016.	£9,000
Daiwa Foundation Small Grants
11020/11760	Antlers Gallery	Support for travel to Japan by Charles Emerson to make new photographic work of Mount Fuji in early 2016, which will then be exhibited in Shizuoka at the Tokaido Hiroshige Museum of Art & the Centre for Creative Communications from October to December 2016.	£3,000
11055/11796	Anzai, Mr Tsuyoshi	Support for visits to London in March and June 2016 by artist Tsuyoshi Anzai, winner of the Royal British Society of Sculptors (RBS) Bursary Award, to include participation in an exhibition and events and training seminars and mentoring from RBS.	£4,000
10868/11756	Craftspace	Support for travel to the UK by Atsushi Yoshimoto and his textile work, which will be exhibited in 'Radical Craft', an exhibition focusing on craft made by artists outside of the mainstream and which will tour for 18 months at eight UK venues, March 2016 onwards.	£3,000

10977/11717	DanceXchange	Support for a 36-day residency in Birmingham by Shun Ito, whose installation of kinetic sculptures, 'Cells' and associated talks and workshops will be an integral part of the biennial International Dance Festival Birmingham (IDFB), 3 to 21 May 2016.	£3,000
10979/11719	Heriot-Watt University, School of Life Sciences	Support for travel to Nagasaki by four senior International Centre for Island Technology (ICIT) staff for the dual purposes of developing a linked MSc programme in Marine Renewable Energy and exploring research synergies in marine renewables, fisheries and diving science, January/February 2016.	£3,500
5079/11727	Kingston University, School of Architecture & Landscape	Travel by Terunobu Fujimori to participate in a round-table event on the theme of contemporary crafts held in a pavilion to be built with his guidance by Kingston Architecture students at Dorich House Museum and catalogue costs, Kingston, March 2016.	£2,500
6817/11790	Liverpool Biennial of Contemporary Art Ltd.	Contribution to travel associated with Koki Tanaka's exhibitions at The Showroom (April to June 2016) and Liverpool Biennial (9 July - 16 October), resulting in strengthened institutional relationships around curatorial practice in the UK and Japan.	£3,000
11001/11741	Menuhin Competition Trust	Support for subsistence in the UK for 12 days by one Junior and one Senior competitor from Japan to take part in the Menuhin Competition, held biennially, and in London in 2016 to celebrate Lord Menuhin's centenary, April 2016.	£3,000
11006/11746	Modern Culture	Support for travel to the UK by contemporary writers from Japan to take part in a day-long event at the British Library showcasing Japanese literature, politics and society, with satellite events at Bath Literature Festival, Leeds University and Manchester, February 2016.	£3,000
11039/11779	Newman, Professor Michael	Support for travel to Japan by Michael Newman to research Japanese artists for the exhibition 'Drawing After Bellmer' to be held at The Drawing Room in London, to investigate touring the exhibition in Japan and Japanese participation in the conference and publication, May 2016.	£3,000
2868/11774	Royal College of Surgeons of England, The	Support for travel by research fellows in plastic surgery and colorectal surgery to visit the Cancer Institute Hospital in Tokyo to establish a trainee exchange programme and to explore similar links at the Japanese Orthopaedic annual meeting in Yokohama, May 2016.	£3,000
4388/11686	Tate St Ives	Support for transport of work for display in 'That Continuous Thing', an exhibition tracing the changing shape of the ceramics studio over the last century, with a gallery dedicated to the exchange between Japan and the West entitled 'Defining The East', March to September 2017.	£3,000
11058/11799	Tokyo Institute of Technology, Earth Life Science Institute	Support for reciprocal visits to Tokyo and Dundee for Dr Soko Matsumura and Mr Ramon Brasser in July and autumn 2016, to research how celestial collisions affected the evolution of the Solar System, resulting in a workshop in Japan in late 2016.	£5,000
9790/11762	University College London, Department of Computer Science	Support for travel by two University College London academics participating in a collaborative UK-Japan workshop in Tokyo, bringing together researchers working on the development of machines capable of reading, reasoning and answering questions, and talks in Kansai, spring 2016.	£3,000
10922/11662	University of Cambridge, Disability Resource Centre	Support for two members of the Cambridge Disability Service to deliver lectures and assist in developing services for disabled students across the Japanese Higher Education sector at Nagoya and Tsukuba Universities and in Kyoto, February/March 2016.	£3,000
11040/11780	University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh Law School	Support for reciprocal UK-Japan visits for research into the transplanting of Western notions of constitutionalism (legal & political) to Japan's constitutional system; desk research, interviews and research seminars, leading to an international journal article, 2016.	£3,000
7611/11815	University of Hull, Department of Music	Support for travel to Japan to study the interaction of music and "benshi", silent film narrators, in Taisho-period cinema, resulting in a book chapter, seminars & live screenings with musical accompaniments & benshi involving students in both countries, January 2016.	£2,500

10958/11698	University of the West of England, Centre for Appearance Research	Support for travel to Japan by University of the West of England academics to assist Osaka University Dental Hospital colleagues optimise the psychosocial care for individuals with birth defects in Japan by implementing an innovative training method for staff in health care settings, October 2016.	£2,700
10994/11734	University of Tokyo, Division of Cellular Therapy	Support for a two-month stay by Dr Yosuke Tanaka to analyse large data sets from single-cell RNA-sequence analysis of stem cells at the University of Cambridge, and to share computation, experimental and bioinformatical skills, February to April 2016.	£3,000
10949/11689	University of York, Department of Philosophy	Support for travel to Japan by five academics from York taking part in a three-day UK-Japan conference on Reason, Difference and Toleration in Early Modern Europe (and its relevance today) and associated lectures and masterclasses, Kyoto University, summer 2016.	£3,500
11031/11771	Watershed Arts Trust, Bristol	Support for travel to Bristol by Yamaguchi Center for Arts and Media (YCAM) colleagues to hold a three-day workshop for dancers, choreographers & coders to develop new choreography techniques using technology developed in Japan, which can deal with live motion data and interactive visualisation of movement, February 2016.	£3,000
10939/11679	Willems, Dr Nadine	Support for a two-week research visit to Japan to support the translation, commentary and publication of a selection of poems written by Japanese political dissenters in the 1930s, offering alternative perspectives on Hokkaido and the native Ainu community, April 2016.	£2,500
11054/11794	Zimmermann	Support for a one-week visit to Japan by Professor of Baroque Violin, Simon Standage to perform in two concerts in Tokyo and Osaka with a small orchestra of Japanese musicians aiming to promote the British style of baroque performance, March 2016.	£3,000